Season development

The season is the first show to ever air on The Sims TV, and is created by Andrija Prelec, who had previously worked on SimTV. Episodes air every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, with nominations, Power of Veto and the live eviction held on each of those days respectively. The show is hosted by Katrina Caliente, who previously appeared in Don's Life, a reality show which was primarily focused on Don Lothario's dating life and love affairs.

Format

The series follows a group of contestants, known as HouseGuests, who are living together in a custom-built home under constant surveillance. The HouseGuests are completely isolated from the outside world, and can have no communication with those not in the house. The season is heavily based on the US and Canadian variants of the originally Dutch show, which gained notoriety in 1999 and 2000.

The contestants are competing for a $500,000 grand prize, with weekly competitions and evictions determining who will win the show. The Head of Household competition is held at the beginning of each week, and is most often performed on the live eviction episode. The Head of Household for each week is given certain luxuries such as the HoH Suite but is responsible for nominating two HouseGuests for eviction. The Head of Household is not able to compete in the following week's Head of Household competition, meaning that a HouseGuest can not hold the title for two weeks in a row. The winner of the Power of Veto could choose to save one of the nominated HouseGuests, forcing the Head of Household to nominate someone in their place. The winner of the Power of Veto cannot be named as the replacement nominee. All HouseGuests excluding the Head of Household and nominees later vote to determine which of the two nominees should be evicted, and the nominated HouseGuest who received the most votes is evicted during a live episode. If there is a tie in the voting, the reigning Head of Household is required to make the tiebreaker decision.

Final four evicted HouseGuests go on to become members of the Jury. The Jury is responsible for choosing who wins the series alongside the viewers who are considered the Fifth Juror. The members of the Jury are not shown any Diary Room interviews or any footage that may include strategy or details regarding nominations.

Pandora's Box

Pandora's Box was a twist unleashed into the game in week two. Each week, the head of household was told something about the twist and then had to choose whether to accept or decline the offer, and they were then told exactly what the Pandora's box entailed. On day 29, as it was a double eviction, there was no Pandora's Box. The housemates were later informed on day 30 that the twist had ended.

Week	Head of Household	Clue	Result	Twist
Week 2	Erica	More people will compete in the Power of Veto competition this week.	Accepted	Everyone except Erica, the head of household, was eligible to compete in the Power of Veto competition.
Week 3	Hannah	People will play the power of veto competition in pairs this week.	Refused	Undisclosed
Week 4	Noah	The rule about no contact from the outside world will be broken for a chosen few this week.	Accepted	Noah and three other HouseGuests he had to choose received video messages from home.

HouseGuests

Annie

Annie Curtis is a 22-year-old creative writing student at Académie Le Tour from Monte Vista. She formed an alliance with Saffron early, and after week 1, they ended up nominated together. She became the first housemate to be evicted on day 8 by a vote of 7-0.

Erica

Erica Reed is a 30-year-old marketing consultant from Bridgeport City. She entered the house on day 1, and quickly formed an alliance with Nathan. She was the second Head of Household, however due to Will's ejection, her reign was cancelled. She was first nominated on day 23 by Noah as part of a plan to 'back-door' Forrest. She was again nominated by Kandy on day 29 as part of a double eviction, but won the Power of Veto competition, hence saving herself from eviction. She was nominated for a third time on day 30 by Hannah and became the second juror on day 36 by a 2-0 vote against Kandy.

Forrest

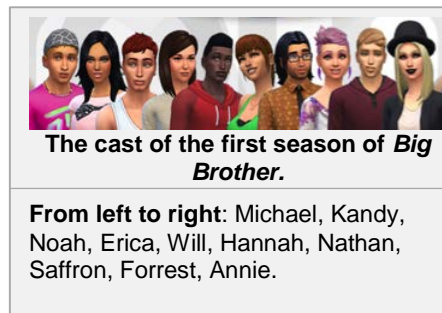

Forrest Bishop is 25 years old and he is unemployed. He lives in Roaring Heights. His father is the founder of Bishop Airlines. Forrest became the first Head of Household on day 2, which led him to become a large target throughout his time in the house. He was nominated every week until he was evicted in week 4 and became the first evictee of the double eviction, and the last non-juror evictee.

Hannah

Hannah Powell is a 21-year-old student studying Business at SSU, but she is originally from Appaloosa Plains. She became Head of Household on day 15, which resulted in her having to spend one night in complete isolation, followed by her having to wear a knight's costume for one week, and having to eat solely Mac 'n' Cheese for two weeks, something which normally only the nominees must do. She was first nominated on day 23, as part of a plan to 'back-door' Forrest, and was removed from the block after Noah won the Veto competition. She again won Head of Household on day 29, after the double eviction. She was nominated for the first time in week 6 when Kandy won the Power of Veto, and she was the only choice for a replacement, and became the third juror on day 41, leaving in fourth place.

Kandy

Kandy (Rebecca) Starr is a 29-year-old VIP waitress and former porn star from Starlight Shores. In the HoH competition on day 15 she won a trip for two to Sunlit Tides and $10,000. She was first nominated on day 16 by Hannah, but survived the eviction against Nathan. She was again nominated post-veto in week 5 by Hannah, but again survived. She became Head of Household on day 29, as part of a double eviction. She was nominated for a third time on day 36, when Michael had to nominate live after the Head of Household competition, but won the Power of Veto, earning herself a place in the final 3 alongside Michael, and the power to choose a replacement nominee. She was evicted on day 43, when Michael chose to take Noah to the final. On day 45, she was crowned the Viewers' Favourite HouseGuest, and won $25,000.

Michael

Michael McCoy is a 21-year-old student from Bridgeport City, who is studying Kinesiology at Bridgeport Community College. He became romantically involved with Hannah during his stay in the house. He has never been nominated and he did not win a competition until day 36, where he won Head of Household. He won the final head of household competition on day 43, earning him a place in the final on day 45. He chose to take Noah, meaning that Kandy was evicted. He was announced Runner-Up to Noah on day 45, losing the vote by 1-4.

Nathan

Nathan Baker is 29-year-old waiter from Newcrest. He aspires to be a writer. He formed an alliance with Erica early in the game, and became known for playing a very hard-line game, which in the end led to his eviction as he became the third evictee on day 22 by a 4-1 vote against Kandy.

Noah

Noah E. Cox is a 25-year-old hairdresser who lives in Starlight Shores, but is originally from Belladonna Cove. He entered the house on day 1, and became known as a 'floater', choosing to spend time with all HouseGuests. He was nominated for the first time in week 1, but he won the first Power of Veto of the season and saved himself. He won Head of Household on day 22, which led to Forrest being 'back-doored'. He was again nominated on day 30, but won another Power of Veto competition, saving himself from eviction. He was nominated for a third time on day 36, when Michael had to nominate live after the Head of Household competition. He was crowned the first winner of Big Brother (The Sims TV) on day 45, by a vote of 4-1.

Saffron

Saffron Ward is 31 years old, and she works as a tattoo artist in Magnolia Promenade. She was first nominated post-veto in week 1, alongside Annie, whom she had grown very close to throughout the week. On day 15, she had to dye her hair green as a punishment in the week 3 Head of Household competition. She never won a competition during her time in the house, and became the first juror on day 29, in a double eviction by a vote of 2-1 against Noah, after being nominated by Kandy.

Will

Will (William) Lane is a 23-year-old from Riverblossom Hills who is unemployed. He was first nominated on day 9 by Erica, alongside Forrest. He had a short-lived 'showmance' with Kandy in week 2, however, Kandy quickly grew to dislike him, after numerous comments made. He was ejected from the house on day 12 due to constant outbursts, which included homophobic taunts towards Noah and throwing his microphone in the swimming pool. As he likely would have been evicted in week 2 had he not been ejected, the planned day 15 eviction was cancelled.

Notes

- Note 1 : On day 12, due to constant outbursts and numerous warnings, Will was ejected from the Big Brother house. As a result, the eviction was cancelled, and no power of veto ceremony was held.
- Note 2 : Week 4 was a double eviction week. After the first eviction, one week's worth of games were played on the same night, culminating in the second eviction of the show and the opening of the jury house.
- Note 3 : Michael was required to nominate live, straight after winning Head of Household.
- Note 4 : During the finale, the jury members voted for who they wanted to see win Big Brother.
- Note 5 : The public acted as the fifth juror, and they chose Noah to win (with 69% of the vote), meaning he won by a vote of 4-1.

Controversy

On day 12, Will was ejected from the Big Brother house. This was due to repeated intolerable behaviour including throwing his microphone in the pool and intentionally homophobic language. Despite numerous warnings, his behaviour continued, and after the Power of Veto ceremony on day 12, he was ejected, resulting in the cancellation of the eviction which was planned to take place on day 15.
